Sir,

Sub:- T.A. on Discharge from Sanatorium.
Ref:- my letter dt 18.7.51.

I am very much thankful to you if you can kindly let me know about the particulars mentioned in my letter 1 & 2 and as to how that stands now. Although I mentioned to you in the same letter that I would start for home at the end of last month I was not able on account of some domestic handicaps and hence I intend to start in the first week of September 51.

Therefore I request you to take speedy action to and make me enable to start in the first week of September.

Yours faithfully

Ref:- Your No.2623/51 D1 dated 19-7-51.

I have perused the petition of Mr. D' Costa. As mentioned therein I have advised him to go home as he has been here for nearly three years now.

As to his T.A. Bill, on enquiry from the Railway Station Master at INGUR, I find that the III Class railway fare from INGUR to MANGALORE is Rs.7-13-0 by ordinary Passenger Train and Rs.9-8-0 by Express Trains. The jutka fare of Rs.2-0-0 can be allowed. I am unable to verify the other items of the T.A. Bill.

The proforma and the petition are enclosed herewith.

Sir,

Sub:- Travelling allowance in r/o Ex-Servicemen T.B Patient - J. A'Costa from the Sanatorium back for home.

You instructed me in your letter No. M. Dis 2325/51, dt 26.6.51 to approach you in advance for travelling allowance in respect of the journey to be undertaken so as to enable you to approach the Indian Red Cross Society, New Delhi, and to get the travelling allowance sanctioned in time, I beg to say that after the completion of the Sanatorium treatment during the past 2 years 10 months, the Medical Superintendent of the C.D.J.T. Sanatorium, Perunduraí, in which I am laid up now, said to me that I could go home at the end of this month (July 51) and take bed rest as I take now here since I could require no more institutional treatment but only bed rest and therefore he could not keep me in the Sanatorium any longer.

I have decided therefore to go home as said by the Medical Superintendent and request you to help me financially from the Indian Red Cross Society, New Delhi to meet the expenses of my journey, the particulars of which are here below appended :-

From	To.	No of miles	Nature of Conveyance	Amount towards Hire or Charges

Sub:- M.A.C.- relief grant - ex. No. 145800 Nav. clk F. D'Costa - proforma for T.A. on discharge from Sanatorium and for P.A.S. treatment at home - fwded.

I fwd. herewith a combined proforma in respect of the above ex. S. man for (1) ~~transport charges~~ travelling allowance on discharge from the C.D.J.T. Sanatorium and (2) P.A.S. treatment at home after discharge, for due consideration by the Fund Committee.

(1) Travelling expenses. An extract from the estimate for Rs. 16.9-0 appd. by the Supt. of the Sanatorium is enclosed. The Supt. has permitted ~~this~~ the discharge of the ex.S. man who intends to leave the Sanatorium in the first week of Sep. '57.

(2) P.A.S. treatment. The Supt. has not fwded answers to the questionnaire envisaged in I.S.S.& A.Bd's letter No. 14-S/B(397)/48-50 dated 29.5.50. It is inferred from

(A). p.63

from the above letter that a grant from the I R C S for P.A.S. treatment is admissible only ~~[illegible]~~ in the case of in-patients. However, the proforma has not been withheld, in the interests of the Ex.S.man who has been specifically recommended a grant in this regard.
If ~~the Society required~~ A intends to make a grant in this Case,
I shall, on hearing from you, obtain and forward the questionnaire form duly answered by the Supdt. of the Sanatorium
